Dermatological Emergencies

From the perspective of the Crowded Camper Mom, this story chronicles the first six months of full-time living in an RV for an adventurous military family. Leaving her home behind to keep the family with their Military Man, an Air Force search and rescue pilot, she details the chaos of packing seven living bodies (counting the two small kids, two huge dogs and a grumpy fish) into 41 feet of space called home. Enduring the worst winter Arkansas had seen in decades in a fifth wheel with walls thinner than paper, they battle ice storms, exploding appliances, flaming space heaters and their retired military bomb dog (Arco). He may have once found bombs in the military, but now he drops bombs of the fecal kind throughout the expanse of their living space. Whether he is counter surfing or chasing deer, Arco's stories will make you laugh out loud, as much as the stories about their children's antics, the rest of their pets, and the bonds between them will bring you great joy and warm your soul. At the end of the day you will feel good about life, love and relationships, while you experience theirs in a house "made for garden gnomes."

This book is targeted to the millions who work with energy and the chakras, and it aims at giving you a scientific explanation to that ancient knowledge passed on to our generation throughout the centuries by the Masters. I, in fact, make a comparison with the discoveries of a scientist and nuclear physicist named

Massimo Corbucci and the ancient knowledge that we use every day. I found it amazing to discover that the atom is made of seven colors, exactly the same as the chakras and in the same order as the chakras! The scientific explanations given about past lives, symbols, the power of thought, and being able to move in time and space are extraordinary. It continues with A Spiritual Path starting in Sae Babas Ashram in India and follows with extraordinary experiences on the Himalayas with His Holiness, the Dalai Lama, for the Kalachakra ceremony. Regressions in three past lives are described as well as those past lives seen by psychics. A large section is dedicated to my direct regressions into past lives, three directly experienced, and others viewed or seen by different psychics. It continues with The vibrations of prayers and The Mystery of the Senegalese Brooch and some very recent experiences with the Entities.
