The Rainbow Fish Journal

When Duncan arrives at school one morning, he finds a stack of letters, one from each of his crayons, complaining about how he uses them. 75,000 first printing.

Little Cloud

Reading from a critical stance is a natural part of comprehension. It involves making connections between the text and the world, questioning the author and the text's purpose, and understanding how we are influenced by the text. In this clear, easy-to-use resource, the authors present a sound instructional framework that is based on the latest theory and research and brought to life through a variety of theme-based classroom lessons for the primary, intermediate, and middle school grades. For use with Grades 1-8.

It Looked Like Spilt Milk

Because she never wakes up before the other owls leave for the night, Little Owl feels lonely and tries to make friends with a little boy.

Tickle Monster

Images of Rainbow Fish's undersea world, from a red starfish to a brown snail, reinforced by facing pages in the appropriate color, teach the colors.

Colors with Little Fish

Follows the adventures of Dazzle, a spectacular little dinosaur with an iridescent foil spine who, with his friend Maia, meets the friendly Stegosaurus and the terrible Dragonsaurus. Reprint.

Meanies

Children will delight in Marcus Pfister's adorable 'Penguin Pete' as he playfully passes the time until he's big enough to swim in the sea. He practices trying to walk gracefully and tries to imitate a bird in flight. He soon discovers that penguins can't fly, but they sure can swim—and Pete turns out to be a natural!

Rainbow Fish Finds His Way

The tickle monster flies in from Planet Tickle to share his talents, moving from one part of the body to another.

Critical Literacy

What are sight words? These are the commonly written words in the English language. If a child can read sight words, it will become easier for him/her to read sentences later on. This book lists down some of the most commonly used sight words, what they mean and how they are used. Learn from these exercises. Grab a copy today!

Questions, Questions

Delightful cumulative rhyme leads up to the consequences of piling too many sleepy people and animals in a cozy bed. "Don Wood's paintings endow Audrey's familiar plot with beauty and newness, conveying atmosphere as well as illustrating the story."--Publishers Weekly

Rainbow Fish to the Rescue!

Gerald the giraffe is too clumsy to dance with all the other animals at the Jungle Dance, until he finds the right music.

The Book with No Pictures

Timothy Pope has a brand new telescope and he's testing it out at the park. Children will delight in peeping through the die-cut holes and guessing what Tim has spotted. Is that really a shark he can see? Turn the page and find out . . .

Giraffes Can't Dance

Marcus Pfister's award-winning Rainbow Fish is back--""in a brand-new adventure! This time, Rainbow Fish gets lost in an undersea storm and has to find his way back home. Luckily, with the help of some new friends, it isn't long before Rainbow Fish is reunited with his glittering school of fish.

Rainbow Fish

A pop-up hide-and-seek book featuring everybodys favorite fish.

Pete's a Pizza

"What we have here is a bad case of stripes. One of the worst I've ever seen!"

Camilla Cream loves lima beans, but she never eats them. Why? Because the other kids in her school don't like them. And Camilla Cream is very, very worried about what other people think of her. In fact, she's so worried that she's about to break out in a bad case of stripes!

Rainbow Fish A, B, C

Shark in the Park

An adorable Rainbow Fish board book, perfect for bedtime! When Little Rainbow Fish can't fall asleep, there's only one thing that can help—his Mommy! Little Rainbow Fish's mom promises to watch over him, no matter if he is in the ink cloud of an octopus, lost in the deep blue sea, or simply having a bad dream. A sweet adaptation of the hardcover storybook. "Just the thing to help calm nerves when the day is almost done."—Booklist

The Read-Aloud Family

"In this book with no pictures, the reader has to say every silly word, no matter what"--

Good Night, Little Rainbow Fish

This colourful undersea adventure from the bestselling creators of The Gruffalo and Stick Man is now available in board book format! Tiddler is late to school every day, and he always has an elaborate excuse for his teacher. One day, as Tiddler is thinking up his next story, a net sweeps him up and hauls him far away from his school. How will Tiddler find his way home? All he has to do is follow the trail of his biggest, fishiest story yet! Full of bright colour and bouncy repetition, this engaging book makes a fun introduction to the wonders of story-telling!

You Can't Win Them All, Rainbow Fish

Red fish, purple shells, green seaweed -- there are so many colors to find with Little Fish in this deep-sea delight from Lucy Cousins. Little Fish is off on a fun, rhyming adventure underwater, spotting colors along the way: blue fish, yellow coral, maybe even a pink seahorse. The bright orange star of Hooray for Fish! loves swimming in the sea, and little ones will love looking at and learning colors in this sturdy board book from the creator of Maisy.

The Day the Crayons Quit

After hearing Old Nemo the explorer speak to their class, Rainbow Fish and some of his classmates venture beyond the safety of the reef, but at the edge of the forbidden area, they understand why they should not go there.

Aaaarrgghh, Spider!

The white shape silhouetted against a blue background changes on every page. Is it a rabbit, a bird, or just spilt milk? Children are kept guessing until the surprise ending -- and will be encouraged to improvise similar games of their own.

Snow Puppy

Tomie dePaola's classic (and hilarious) story of a young cave boy and his mysterious egg. Mama Grunt sends Little Grunt out to find a dozen eggs. All he can find is one huge egg. The egg hatches and out pops a baby dinosaur. Little Grunt names him George. Soon George grows too big for the Grunt family cave, and poor Little Grunt has to send him away. But when the local volcano erupts, there's only one dinosaur who can save the day!

The Way I Feel

A rip-roaring read-aloud (shout-aloud) picture book about a spider who wants to be the family pet from the internationally acclaimed illustrator of Julia Donaldson's What the Ladybird Heard. Spider wants to be a family pet. But the family whose house he lives in are terrified of him. Whenever he tries to show them what a great pet he would make, they simply cry: "AAAARRGGHH, Spider!" The illustrator of Julia Donaldson's famous titles such as The Singing Mermaid and The Rhyming Rabbit proves she is an author in her own right with this best-selling picture book story.

The Sight Word Exercise Book - Reading Book for Kindergarten Children's Reading & Writing Book

When a big blue whale comes to live near their reef, there is a misunderstanding between him and Rainbow Fish and his friends that leaves everyone very unhappy and hungry.

The Mitten

A bored young boy uses a magic feather to form a tiger, and then must use the feather to save his village when the tiger gets hungry.

The Pout-Pout Fish

Several animals sleep snugly in Nicki's lost mitten until the bear sneezes.

Play with Rainbow Fish

Connecting deeply with our kids can be difficult in our busy, technology-driven lives. Reading aloud offers us a chance to be fully present with our children. It also increases our kids' academic success, inspires compassion, and fortifies them with the inner strength they need to face life's challenges. As Sarah Mackenzie has found with her own six children, reading aloud long after kids are able to read to themselves can deepen relationships in a powerful way. Founder of the immensely popular Read-Aloud Revival podcast, Sarah knows first-hand how reading can change a child's life. In The Read-Aloud Family, she offers the inspiration and age-appropriate book lists you need to start a read-aloud movement in your own home. From a toddler's wonder to a teenager's resistance, Sarah details practical strategies to make reading aloud a meaningful family ritual. Reading aloud not only has the power to change a family—it has the power to change the world.
